"We were blown away by the incredible hospitality - at the very place where polo was founded! By far, the horses were the highlight. We were amazed not only by their size but by their toughness as well."

- Mason Wroe. Captain, USA Polo Team organized by the USPA, Manipur Polo International 2013

"I loved how the local people were so genuinely excited about polo! The staff and guides were wonderful, catering to our every need. We were treated like foreign dignitaries!"

- Peter Blake. Team Member USA Polo Team organized by the USPA, Manipur Polo International 2013

A NOTE ON TRAVEL TO MANIPUR

Best time to visit: Sept to April.

Thanks to the valley's elevation of almost 3000 feet, the weather in Imphal, the capital of Manipur, is hospitable throughout the year. November is pleasantly warm during the day and cool evenings call for a light jacket.

Our travel partner, Thomas Cook International®, will oversee all our travel and hospitality needs. We will send you a detailed note on travel to Manipur upon your registration.
